Citizenship Washington Focus

Paige McConnaughy and Aimee Daniel will represent Kings County at the Citizenship Washington Focus Conference in June. Paige and Aimee have worked hard to identify a need in Kings County they are passionate about, and have received a Revolution of Responsibility Grant of $1,000 to help address that need. Healthy living in order to prevent obesity will be their focus. This service learning project will be used to satisfy their requirement in attending the Citizenship Washington Focus Conference.

St. Vincent de Paul, a non-profit organization in Hanford will be the cooperating organization. St. Vincent de Paul has an excellent reputation in the community for reaching the impoverished and providing food as well as clothing.

Kings County Farm Bureau

Club News...

Kings Harvest 4-H

The Kings Harvest 4-H club held their monthly meeting on Monday, May 13th at 7 pm. Leader and project reports were given. Several members reported on past events attended, such as, the 4-H Fair, Sectional Presentation Day and Fashion Revue. Kings Fair entries were discussed and are due on June 3rd. Record books are currently being worked on and we look forward to our end of the year swim party to be held on June 10th.

Submitted by: Raine Palomino, Club Reporter

Island 4-H

Several of the Island 4-H Club members entered the 4-H Fair. Most of outdoor events got to Round Robin. In the Indoor event we showed pictures, rockets, cake decorating and much more. Good job for those who showed work at the 4-H Fair.

Island 4-H has elected new officers, including a healthy living officer. At Island 4-H that is Katelyn McCord. She will teach us about healthy living next year. Summer is here and school will be out soon. Our end of the year party is happening at our last meeting of the year. We are having a BBQ and a water slide.

This is reporter Kara Saari saying, have a fun summer.
