

March 7, 2017 – Madera, CA

Madera County Farm Bureau
1102 S. Pine St., Madera, CA

March 9, 2017 – Tulare, CA

UCCE Tulare County
4437 S Laspina St., Tulare, CA

10:00am to 12:00pm

Sponsored lunch served at noon.

Please join us for a discussion on growing sorghum for silage in California. Whether you're new to sorghum, or looking to refine management, these meetings will present the current knowledge of sorghum silage in California; California derived information will be presented.

TOPICS & SPEAKERS

Variety selection considerations

Dr. Jeff Dahlberg – Kearney Agricultural Research & Extension Center Director

Water & nutrient use

Dr. Bob Hutmacher – UCCE Agronomy Specialist & West Side REC Director

Invasive pests – how to manage for sugar cane aphid

Nicholas Clark – UCCE Kings, Tulare & Fresno Counties Advisor

2016 sorghum silage quality report

Jennifer Heguy – UCCE Merced, Stanislaus & San Joaquin Counties Advisor

There is no charge to attend.

Pre-registration is appreciated to guarantee your handouts and meal.

Pre-register by phone (209-525-6800) or email (jmheguy@ucdavis.edu).

Please specify location attending (Madera or Tulare).