

Hay and Forage News

Kearney Alfalfa and Forage Field Day Thursday, September 18, 2008

7:30-8:00 AM Registration and Refreshments

8:00 Variety Trial Tour (Tram available to view plots in the field) - Dan Putnam, UCCE Alfalfa and Forage Specialist, UC Davis

Alfalfa Irrigation and Deficit Irrigation Strategies - Blake Sanden, UCCE, Kern County

Alfalfa Insect Control Update - Tulio Macedo, UCCE, Madera and Merced Counties

Alfalfa Weed Control Update - Kurt Hembree, UCCE, Fresno County

BREAK

Vertebrate Pest Management in Alfalfa – Roger Baldwin, UC-IPM, Kearney Ag Center

When Are P and K Applications in Alfalfa Really Necessary? – Shannon Mueller, UCCE, Fresno County

Cruiser and Poncho Seed Treatments for Corn Leafhopper Control AND Status of South American Bean Thrips in San Joaquin Valley Alfalfa - Charlie Summers, Entomologist, UC Davis and Kearney Ag Center

Small Grain Forages, Winter Cereal Variety Update and Weed Control - Steve Wright, UCCE, Tulare and Kings Counties

Questions, Announcements, Meeting Evaluation

12:00 ADJOURN

For additional information, contact Carol Frate at 685-3303

1.5 Hours of PCA and 3.3 Hours of CCA Credit Requested

Our programs are open to all potential participants. Please contact the Tulare County UCCE office at (559) 685-3303 if you have any barriers requiring any special accommodations.

Driving instructions

From Tulare: Head north on state Highway 99 and exit at the Manning Avenue exit. Go east on Manning for eight miles to Riverbend Avenue. Turn right on Riverbend, and continue one-quarter mile to the Kearney Agricultural Center.

